

ANNOUNCING... Limited-time Invitation

Complimentary Science Educator membership in the Indiana Academy of Science, for Middle and High School Science Educators!

The Indiana Academy of Science is happy to offer Indiana Middle and High School science (science, technology, engineering, math) teachers, a complimentary Science Educator membership in the Academy.

We are excited about this limited-time offer, and are hoping that you will grab this opportunity to join with hundreds of Indiana scientists from industry and academia, science graduate and undergraduate students, and other science educators to enjoy the privileges of Academy membership.

Since 1885, the Indiana Academy of Science has supported the scientific research and science education of our states' premier scientists from industry and academia, science educators, and graduate and undergraduate science students. The Academy's commitment to science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) is foremost, and goes back to a time when these fields were not part of an average dinner-table conversation.

The Indiana Academy of Science is one of 47 Academies of Science affiliated with the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS), the world's largest multidisciplinary scientific society and a leading publisher of cutting-edge research through its Science family of journals, and is the 6th largest in the United States.

The Indiana Academy of Science

- Brings together nearly 500 Indiana's scientists from multiple science disciplines once yearly at the Annual Academy Meeting,
- Enables the publication and on-line access of the Proceedings peer-reviewed journal, and the publication of science books and other special publications,
- Facilitates engaging hundreds of university and college students through student membership in the Academy
- Offers science education to school age youth through partnerships with community organizations,
- Permits member access to Academy's secure membership directory, and so much more!

JOIN TODAY! If you are an Indiana middle or high school science teacher, simply complete the Science Educator Membership Application and become a member of the Indiana Academy of Science today.
