

Indiana Academy of Science Annual Meeting

Saturday, March 21, 2025

7:00 AM-6:30 PM

JW Marriott-Downtown Indianapolis

Introduction

The Indiana Academy of Science is a professional membership organization of Indiana scientists. Founded in 1885, it is a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting scientific research and diffusing scientific information, to encouraging communication and cooperation among scientists, and to improving education in the sciences.

The Indiana Academy of Science has been an important voice of Indiana science since its inception in 1885. It continues to enjoy a rich tradition of science excellence, as well as a high professional stature with membership that includes many of Indiana's premier scientists and science educators, as well as graduate and undergraduate students. It brings together nearly 500 Indiana scientists, science educators and science students to share some of this state's latest developments in scientific research and practice.
