9:00 AM-4:15 PM

About the Event

The Indiana Academy of Science is launching a pilot Wildflower & Habitat Restoration Tour across Central Indiana in partnership with People for Pollinators. This small-group tour will visit five sites recognized for restoring native habitats, supporting pollinators, and demonstrating innovative ecological stewardship. At each stop, participants will hear directly from naturalists and experts working on these projects.

This event is designed as a pilot for a future series of educational and fundraising tours that highlight conservation and restoration efforts across Indiana. Attendance is limited to 20 participants to ensure a meaningful, guided experience.
